JUNE 7-11
EXPLORING ART 101

ELEMENTS OF ART
Ages 5-6 • 9am-12pm
$115 Members/$125 Non-members
Students learn about the elements of art while inventing their own colorful creation. This class engages the creativity of young artists while teaching some of the basics of art such as color, line, value, and more.

COLOR THEORY
Ages 7-9 • 9am-12pm
$115 Members/$125 Non-members
This class introduces students to color theory using a variety of painting techniques. Students mix all of their own colors, make their own color wheel, learn about color harmony, color context, and more!

WHAT DO COLORS MEAN?
Ages 10-12 • 9am-12pm
$115 Members/$125 Non-members
Colors can mean many different things. In this class students will learn about colors and what colors can mean in artwork, and what artists want the colors to say.

Each week offers a new and exciting age-appropriate art class that will inspire and challenge your child. The KMA’s certified art educators provide instruction in small groups with personalized instruction.

Classes are held at the Knoxville Museum of Art. Morning classes are offered each week for children ages 5-12. One-week classes start Monday, June 7, and continue each week through Friday, July 30. Tuition for the half-day class is $115.00 for KMA members and $125.00 for non-members (unless specified otherwise), and includes workshop supplies, instruction, and gallery activities.

Classes and scholarships are filled on a first-come, first-served basis. For more information call 865.525.6101 ext. 241 or e-mail education@knoxart.org

The Knoxville Museum of Art participates in the Five Core Standards for COVID-19 as set forth by Knox County.
